

“What Is A Great Public Education?”

Every student deserves a great public education, but what exactly does that mean? In celebration of American Education Week, the Logan Education Association invites students to share their thoughts by creating an original essay, poem, or work of art that answers the question “What is a great public education?”

- Written submissions should address the theme “A great public education is....”
- Visual entries should address the theme “This is what a great public education looks like...”

First-place prizes will be awarded in each of the following school levels: PK-2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8, 9-10, and 11-12. Winning students, their families, and their teachers will be recognized at the Educators Hall of Fame induction ceremony on November 21, and winners at each level will receive a $25.00 gift certificate. AND, ONCE AGAIN THIS YEAR: Teachers of winning students will also receive a prize!

Student submissions for the contest may be sent to Brenda Lemon at the high school or given to any member of the LEA American Education Week Committee.

Please contact members of the American Education Week Committee if you have any questions about the contest.

All submissions must be received by 4:00 p.m. on Monday, November 4.

Good luck to our student writers and artists!!
